

Speaker profiles:

Lunch&Learn, Monday, May 9, 2011

Topic: “Coaching in an International Context”

Prof. Franz Rösli
University of Applied Sciences
Northwestern Switzerland (FHNW)

Franz Rösli is a professor at the University of Applied Sciences Northwestern Switzerland (FHNW), management trainer and Director of the Beyond Budgeting Round Table (BBRT), an international shared learning network for management development. He has experienced several years in management positions in different industries and holds an MBA by the University of St. Gallen.
franz.roeoesli@fhnw.ch, <http://www.bbrt.org>

Dr. Michael Sonntag
Sonntag Consulting
Energetic Enhancement Processes

Michael Sonntag is a Medical Doctor, specialized in psychosomatic medicine and psychotherapy. Since 1990 he is working as Bioenergetic Analyst, Supervisor and Trainer and in the last years in individual Leadership Coaching. His main interests are in a neurobiological and energetic approach in creating the conditions for sustainable change and growth, in switching the “operating system’s CODE” and in enabling individual but also organizational energetic enhancement processes. He is member of HR Bern and of the “Beyond Budgeting Round Table”, a professional international network with the objective of the development and implementation of the concepts and principles of a new management model for flexible, adaptive, sustainable and empowered organizations <http://www.bbrt.org>

Nadine Marmet
Swiss Post
Human Resource Management

Nadine Marmet is a human resource professional for strategy development, development of international human resources management services and Mergers & Acquisition at Swiss Post. She has over 10 years of extensive strategic and operational human resources experience at business and corporate levels in national and international organizations. She holds an EMBA by the University of Applied Sciences Berne (BFH) nadine.marmet@post.ch